News for the parishes of the Carlford Benefice

December 2014

"Seasonal Spirit!"

You may have heard the story of the man who won £1,000,000 on the lottery. The next day his wife was at the front door, picking up the huge amount of post. She called out to her husband, "What shall I do with all the begging letters?" "Oh, for heavens' sake, we're not made of money! Keep sending them out, of course!"

I know Christmas is coming because (even before November 1st!) I've already had several appeals and unrequested Christmas cards from charities. Crisis at Christmas, Salvation Army, St Martin's-in-the-fields, The Ebola Crisis. And why shouldn't they tap into the seasonal spirit of goodwill? Many of them see even greater need in December, especially in contrast to the "extras" many of us look forward to at this time of year. (One response is to beat them to it – to decide (perhaps prayerfully) on a generous amount and send it off, before we brave the supermarkets or buy presents for the kids.)

But where did this tradition of giving at Christmas come from? (And some other religions have a similar custom, of course.) For Christians it comes from God taking the initiative in "giving" us Jesus-unrequested and undeserved – to show us a better way of living, to die for us, and to give us the hope of life beyond death. (Don't let these "religious beliefs" put us off exploring further. Many of us find it difficult to get our heads round them!) And so, in response to God's generosity, we give to others – family, friends, people in need.

I had a relation who we found it impossible to think of presents for. So we used to send a cheque. Years later he hadn't got round to paying the cheques in, so he hadn't enjoyed what we'd given him. I know someone from one of my past parishes a bit like that. Sue had heard the Christmas story many times. But after one particular carol service she decided to make it personal. She asked God to become real to her. The "lovely nativity story for children" became the wonderful focus for the whole of her life, and years later, for her husband too.

We have the opportunity to make a difference to others at Christmas. Perhaps Christmas will also make a difference to us.

Have a good one!

CAROL SINGERS IN SWILLAND

I am seeking carol singers for the village. You don't have to be good, just willing to add your two pennyworth to raise the roof of the houses we walk past along High Road on Friday 19th December starting @ 7pm. We aim to assemble at the water tower and then proceed down High Road to finish at the Moon & Mushroom. There together with a similar group of like minded warblers whom Nikki Gavin has recruited on our behalf to achieve harmony we plan to join the merry makers within and give expert rendering to any carols not already sung. No doubt there will be opportunity to wet your whistle as well, if you are so inclined. If you can make that time and date and could also come to a rehearsal in the Church on Thursday 4th December at 7pm to tune up then great. We are going to make a house collection and give half to the Hospice and put the other half into Church funds to give our tired church organ a major refurb, so your efforts will be meaningful. I know many of you are shy, but the village needs both you and your vocal chords! Please sign up and contact Brian Williams either by email bfwdent@btinternet.com or by phone 01473 785726 or 07768 285670 so I know we will be able to raise a good head of steam on the nights concerned.

Monday House Group

We shall meet at 7.30pm 1st December - The life of Elizabeth in Luke's Gospel New members would be most welcome, so come along.

FROM THE RECTOR!

"POSADA"

What you ask? It is a Sth American Advent tradition- in which the crib figures of Mary and Joseph travel from house to house throughout the month- eventually arriving at the Crib/Christmas service. As the figures are taken on each day, and the door is knocked on- the question is asked "is there room in your home for the Holy Family tonight"? As you welcome the figures in, you welcome your guests in too, and have an opportunity to get to know someone previously unknown, or to have a good natter with someone who is already a friend.

It's a really lovely addition to the our established Advent traditions - do please get involved- talk to Jane /Catherine/Wendy or me, dependent on which of our villages you live in!

Have a good Advent and a very Happy Christmas, Clare

THE MEN'S GROUP

Monday 15th December

6.30pm

(The Moon & Mushroom, Swilland).

Please contact Brian
Williams for those wanting Supper. Tel 01473 785726
bfwdent@btinternet.com

The speaker for this select erudite group is Dr.
Laurence Howard OBE,
the Lord Lieutenant of Rutland. The title on which he will speak is "What would the Queen do?"

Intriguing I hear you say? What is all that going to be about?. Well come along on the night and find out.

And for the price of a pint and the cost of a meal you can drink good beer and eat tasty food afterwards and wax lyrical about Laurence's talk and any other item for discussion that takes your fancy.

HOST

HOST is looking for kind, friendly, hospitable people of all ages whose imaginations are caught by the idea of welcoming an international student at university here, far from his or her own family, to their home, for a day, a weekend or at Christmas. You don't need to live near a university, as students will travel for the privilege of meeting you, learning about real life in this country, and sharing their own culture. HOST is a voluntary activity which makes ambassadors for international goodwill of us all.

Please see www.hostuk.org or call local organiser Sally Ann O'Neill 01728 685604. Thank you
