Christmas Is Really For The Children

Easter is early this year – Easter Sunday coincides with the start of British Summer Time – March 27th. Lent, beginning on Ash Wednesday, February 10th, is the 6 week period before Easter and originated in the 4th Century. It reflects the forty days and forty nights when Jesus fasted in the desert and prepared himself spiritually for his three year ministry. Many Christians today give up something, or take up something extra, in order to deepen their relationship with Jesus. But the word Lent simply means spring, referring to the lengthening of the days as we move forward through spring to summer. So (for us) Lent and Easter are closely associated with springtime – chicks, lambs, eggs, new shoots appearing in the garden.

Last year I spent two months in Australia as locum vicar of a church in Melbourne. We had a great time, but I would have found it hard to get my head around the “wrong way round” seasons! Christmas at 40°C? And Lent and Easter in the autumn, when the days are getting shorter and – at least in the south – you’re coming up to winter. So no obvious allusions to the world of nature – no eggs or blossoms. If you celebrate Easter in Church “down under” I suppose you have to make do with Jesus’ death and resurrection.

I find Steve Turner’s poem thought provoking as we are poised between Christmas and Easter. Have a good Lent.

Christmas Is Really For The Children

Christmas is really for the children
especially for children who like animals, stables, stars and babies wrapped in swaddling clothes.
Then there are wise men, kings in fine robes,
humble shepherds and a hint of rich perfume.
Easter is not really for the children
unless accompanied by a cream filled egg.
It has whips, blood, nails, a spear and allegations of body snatching.
It involves politics, God and the sins of the world.
It is not good for people of a nervous disposition.
They would do better to think on rabbits,
chickens and the first snowdrop of spring.
Or they’d do better to wait for a re-run of Christmas without asking too many questions about what Jesus did when he grew up or whether there’s any connection.

FOOD BANK

Thank you to all throughout our villages who make donations to the Food Bank. They bring much relief to a growing number who fall on hard times.

If any of you hear of someone who wishes to donate and does not know how; tell them, 'Do it at your church'. The donations go to FIND and these words from the East Anglian Daily Times page of Unsung Heroes describe it.

Maureen Reynel MBE is a remarkable lady, who started a very special charity based in Ipswich, FIND, 20 years ago. FIND is a Christian charity which helps those living in Ipswich and surrounding areas who are deprived of a minimum standard of living.

FIND's focus is on providing emergency aid – regardless of age, gender or creed. They believe "everyone is family".

Maureen needs help please. Are you able to help with...

- * Regular collections of non-perishable food.
- * Van deliveries throughout the year.
- * Donations to support out of pocket expenses such as storage, rent, vehicle costs, food...
- * Initiating and organising fundraising events.
- * Donations of good quality clean basic household goods e.g. beds and bedding, sofas, chests of drawers, table and chairs, soft furnishings, white goods and kitchen equipment (Items must comply with safety regulations of course.)

I hope you can help!

For more information please contact
Maureen Reynel on 01473 833 351

Signposts

One of the requests from last year's questionnaire was that we should signpost resources for you to help in your Christian living – so this month we are signposting the “International Bible Reading Association” – enter their name in Google and a wealth of resources will appear!

Sacred Space

During Lent this year we are offering the opportunity of silence and space to you, in which to contemplate, reflect and pray, each Friday between 2.00-3.00pm. There will be no spoken prayers or preaching, but resources for you to use at your own pace in your own way. You can come for the hour or 10 minutes- as long or as short a time as you like- all we ask is that you come and go in silence

5 “T”s of Mission

The Deanery Lent course this year will be held at St Felix Rendlesham- a warm church, with toilets and easy level access, on a Tuesday evening from 7.30-9.00pm. The theme is the 5 “T”s of Mission – these are recognised across the world by all the major church denominations- as descriptors of our mission in the world as members of the Church and followers of Christ.

- Tues 16th Feb - the Revd. Canon Dave Gardner TELL – Proclaim the good news of the Kingdom
- Tues 23rd Feb - Bishop Martin TREASURE - Safeguard the integrity of Creation, and sustain and renew the life of the earth
- Tues 1st March - the Revd. Canon Paul Daltry TEND - respond to human need by loving service
- Tues 8th March - the Very Revd. Keith Jones TEACH - teach, baptise and nurture new believers
- Tues 15th March - the Revd. Canon Clare Sanders TRANSFORM - seek to transform unjust structures of society

Hasketon's Topic for Lent

“What is the point of prayer?”

Wendy invites you to come, discuss, and learn about different aspects of prayer in comfortable and accessible surroundings. We'll consider, for instance 'the point of prayer', the difference between confession and praise, petition, thanksgiving and creative ways of praying.
