Doing one thing at a time – more or less!

Happy New Year to you all. I expect, like me, you may have made some New Year resolutions. I used to think that it was a bad idea to tell friends or family what I had resolved to do differently, give up, change or take on in case they teased me or expected too much of me. More often now I do disclose my good intention in the hope that others may help me stick to it!

So in 2016 I intend to spend more time in the present moment – this may mean noticing the world around me more, the red berries against the bright blue winter sky, practicing daily silent prayer or Christian mindfulness or just doing one thing purposefully at a time instead of trying to do 2 or 3 things simultaneously & then dropping one item, losing another, forgetting why I went to a room & then answering the 'phone.

I know that spending time in the present moment or "saying "Yes" to God's now" is hugely enriching. The welsh poet & priest, R.S. Thomas advises that life isn't about "hurrying on to a receding future" or "hankering after an imagined past" but stepping aside to enjoy the moment. If we consciously still ourselves & are silent before God we can find his peace & love. Similarly when we can enjoy each day for what it brings, appreciating its opportunities & blessings, I think we will find the year ahead fulfilling. That won't always be easy but, as a Sanskrit poem puts it "For yesterday is but a memory & tomorrow is but a vision but today well lived makes every yesterday a memory of happiness & every tomorrow a vision of hope; look well therefore to this day."

It is easy to give up on our New Year resolutions so I'm going to cut out the poem below, laminate it & keep it in the kitchen where I often try to do 2 or 3 things at once. Perhaps you can keep it as a reminder too.

Take time to THINK.....it is the source of power.
Take time to PLAY.....it is the secret of perpetual youth.
Take time to READ.....it is the fountain of wisdom.
Take time to PRAY.....it is the greatest power on earth.
Take time to LOVE and BE LOVED.....it is a God-given privilege.
Take time to BE FRIENDLY.....it is the road to happiness.
Take time to LAUGH.....it is the music of the soul.
Take time to GIVE.....it is too short a day to be selfish.
Take time to WORK.....it is the price of success.
Take time to DO CHARITY.....it is the key to heaven.

The Battle of the Barents Sea

The speaker on this occasion for all you ardent students of history, is Peter T Wright Born in Leigh-on Sea and educated at Westcliff High School he went onto Kings College Hospital to qualify in Dental Surgery. Peter worked as a dentist locally for most of his working life. It was his son, Michael, who could not believe his father knew nothing about his own father, who died in the Second World War, who researched and produced a book on which Peter will base the talk.

Peter Alfred Wright served as an officer in the Royal Naval Reserve and was in a Russian Convoy about which Winston Churchill later stated,

This brilliant action by the Royal Navy to protect the allied convoy to Russia at the end of the year, 1942, led directly to a crisis in the enemy's naval policy and ended the dream of another German high seas victory."

FROM THE RECTOR.....

A new year brings the opportunities for new initiatives - for us in the Carlford Benefice - across our 8 parishes there has been discussion of how we as a Church take our life in God forward - seeking direction in what we do.

As a benefice we have identified that we need to focus on Communication – how we present the life of the Church and our faith in God to the wider community – as well as how we communicate with each other within the benefice-we have set up a HUB group with representatives from our parishes under the age of 60, to meet with the ministry team members to be a forum for discussion and discernment as we seek to do God's work.

Each of our parishes have identified the specific emphases:

- In Ashbocking
To go on an Away day with Swilland parishioners and explore what being a Companion Church means and to deepen our faith together.
- In Boulge
To create a prayer corner, with a book for prayer requests to go on pilgrimage to the Cathedral.
- In Burgh
To focus on finding a Churchwarden.
- In Clopton
Extend the number of people who visit and who are being visited.
Flower Festival – involving more people from the village - with preparation/teas etc.
To hold a village picnic at Pear Tree Farm - with games for children etc.
- In Grundisburgh
Find a Communications officer.
Develop a programme of social events
Explore Holiday Club possibilities
- In Hasketon
A continuing focus on Pastoral care and home/hospital visiting.
Prayer Requests made easier with a Prayer Box and/or Book clearly available.
Communication
- In Otley
Focus on Growing in Numbers during the coming year.
BIG LUNCH event for the Queen's 90th birthday on 11/12th June.
- In Swilland
To create a prayer corner, with a book and noticeboard for prayer requests.
To go on an Away day with Ashbocking and explore what being a Companion Church means

These tasks are not just for PCC or Ministry Team members – they are tasks for all of us to engage in, as we share and live our faith wherever we find ourselves.

Love and prayers for us all in 2016
