

The Grapevine News for the parishes of The Carlford Benefice October 2016

"FAITH AND FOOD"

October is Harvest Festival season – the invitation of this time in the Church's year, is to reflect upon the relationship between faith and food.

When you begin to take a look at the biblical narrative, you discover just a few verses into the book of Genesis, that one of the first acts of God is to give the world the gift of food. When you read on into the story of the Israelite people in the wilderness, you find that it is God who ensures that they are fed and watered- with manna and quails and water from the rock.

In the New Testament, the stories of Jesus eating meals with people are many- some provoke controversy, especially his choice of table companions; others challenge understanding of who Jesus is- the feeding of the 5,000; and the story of the Last Supper has shaped the liturgy and worship of the Christian community from the beginning- when Jesus takes bread- the staple of life, fruit of the earth and work of human hands, and wine- fruit of the vine- representing both the sorrows and joys of life, and gives them new significance and meaning.

Food and faith are clearly a partnership, with implications for our daily living.

At Harvest we rejoice and give thanks for the gift of food and the work of human hands, but we also, use the opportunity to signpost the ways in which in this benefice we witness to the food and faith connection. In addition to our support of the foodbank and the work of FIND, we also support a number of other local organisations- such as West Villa- the homeless families unit in Ipswich; local nursing homes and the Salvation Army night shelter, and further afield Farm Africa.

Food poverty is a scandal in an age of plenty, in a country as wealthy as ours. Harvest gives us an opportunity to review our relationship with food, how it is grown; where it comes from; it's nutritional value or lack of it; the price we pay and the way in which that figure is shared out between producer and retailer.

Some years ago, a curate shared with me the idea of LOAF- as a set of criteria for thinking about our food purchases - Is it?

L - local

O - organic- healthy food

A - animal friendly

F - fairly traded

I have to admit I don't stick to it rigidly, but it does challenge me to think through the connection between my faith and the food I buy and the refreshments we offer and share in our churches.

In the benefice we run a Fairtrade stall- based in Grundisburgh, but open to all our churches. We can order Fairtrade food in from around the world- whether it be tea/coffee/sugar/pasta/chocolate and it can be collected locally.

Collect a catalogue from the back of Grundisburgh Church and send your order to Pat Fletcher 01473 735775.

Food both unites us in family, in community and in church, but it also has the potential to divide us- may we use Harvest to reflect upon the gift of food and the opportunities we have to proclaim our faith through our purchasing and sharing. May we take a quiet moment of two, to contemplate Jesus, who describes himself as the Bread of Life, and who offers his life to us in broken bread and wine outpoured.

Rev'd Clare Sanders
