“Change and Transformation”

It is Bank Holiday Monday- the end of May- there has been heavy rain overnight- but the sun is shining now. The rain has cleared the air; the parched earth has received some much needed water and no doubt the combination of water and warmth will mean the grass needs cutting again, before too long. I don't know why I'm worried, I don't cut the grass, it sets my hay fever off!

So why reflect upon the weather- well it's very British- my father always said "what would we talk about, if we didn't talk about the weather" – but it isn't the weather per se that has struck me, but living in a world of change, nothing remains the same for long, we live in a constantly changing world.

It is the week after the horrific Manchester bombing, when lives were changed irreparably; the anniversary of Brexit is upon us and by the time you read this, there will be a new government; change of political party I doubt, but change nonetheless, and what lies ahead regardless of the colour of party residing at No 10, will inevitably mean change for many.

Looking through my diary, change is happening for people across the benefice this month; weddings for Catrin and Richard, David and Amanda; babies being baptised Jesse James and Ava; the end of term and the prospect of leaving one school to go on to another or awaiting results to discover which university or college will you be going to in Sept/Oct.

For us here in the benefice, there are changes too, Jane Hall has resigned from parish ministry; Wendy is preparing for retirement in September; Jane Woods has been licensed as a Reader and Jenny Taylor and Doris Main, are being re-licensed as Elders to work in Grundisburgh and Clopton.

Change and transformation are written into the DNA of our being; the whole creative process is governed by the cycle of life and death. Just as this is true in nature, so it is true of our spiritual lives.

Richard Rohr writes

"Jesus' resurrection is an invitation to look deeper at the pattern of death and rising in all that is human. Jesus, or any member of "the Body of Christ," cannot really die because we are all participating in something eternal—the Universal Christ that has existed "from the beginning."

Death is not just the death of the physical body, but all the times we hit bottom and must let go of how we thought life should be and surrender to a Larger Power. And in that sense, we all probably go through many deaths in our lifetime. These deaths to the small self are tipping points, opportunities to choose transformation early. Unfortunately, most people turn bitter and look for someone to blame. So their death is indeed death for them, because they close down to growth and new life"

But if you do choose to walk through the depths—even the depths of your own sin and mistakes—you will come out the other side, knowing you've been taken there by a Source larger than yourself. Surely this is what it means to be saved. Being saved doesn't mean that you are any better than anyone else or will be whisked off into heaven. It means you've allowed and accepted the mystery of transformation here and now. And as now, so later!

If we are to speak of miracles, the most miraculous thing of all is that God uses the very thing that would normally destroy you—the tragic, sorrowful, painful, or unjust—to transform and enlighten you. Now you are indestructible; there are no dead ends. This is what we mean when we say we are "saved by the death and resurrection of Jesus." This is not a one-time cosmic transaction, but the constant pattern of all growth and change. Jesus is indeed saving the world by guiding us through all would-be deaths to a life that is always bigger than death."

'Beyond Alpha' – What do we really know about these Bible topics ...?

Held at GRUNDISBURGH PARISH ROOMS, 10.30 – 12.00 Monday July 3rd & 17th.

The meetings will be facilitated by Revd Wendy Gourlay. Tea and coffee will be available and a warm welcome to those of faith, agnostic, or atheist. A small charge of £1 per person, per session, covers costs. We will consider:

Session 5 – July 3rd

Biblical Topic – ppt. Presentation 2 'Moses & Exodus'

References: Google, commentaries, footnotes and appendices in your Bible

Session 6 – July 17th

Biblical Topic – 'Trinity' Do definitions and metaphors assist or hinder our understanding of the Holy Trinity? How do we experience the Holy Trinity working in and through our lives today?

References: Discussions will include insights from a recent publication of 2016, 'The Divine Dance', written by Richard Rohr.
