

The Grapevine August 2017
News for the parishes of the
Carlford Benefice
“Times of Life.....”

‘Life must be lived forwards, but it can only be understood backwards’. I believe there’s a lot of truth in these words of the Danish theologian, Soren Kierkegaard.

One year ago, my husband and I began discussing retirement from our respective posts this summer - many factors entering into our discernment. The year, however, seems to have flown by and now, on the brink of major transition we wonder what lies ahead. Like anyone approaching a new phase of life, (consider our children moving from primary to secondary school) I have feelings of excitement and anticipation whilst simultaneously fearing the actual moment of departure – leaving that which is known, meaningful and valued.

When recalling my six years amongst these communities of the Carlford benefice, I have SO much to be thankful for. Firstly, Clare, as friend, colleague and Priest-in-Charge second-to-none – fully giving and forgiving - has supported me totally, every step of the way. So too, the ministry team, who at our Thursday morning prayer-times have shared wisdom, tears and laughter. THANK YOU. And yourselves, who encapsulate a VAST array of special relationships through my ministry of pastoral care, particularly in Hasketon and Grundisburgh, of the Occasional Offices (weddings, baptisms and funerals) of teaching, preaching, school assemblies and Open-the-Book, of lunch clubs, swap-shops and sharing my passion of creativity in music and art. Truly, I have loved serving God in this place.

Retirement, however, is an act of withdrawal from a place or situation for the purpose of moving on, turning to a new phase, a new chapter in life. It is not loss understood in the same way as physical death. As a Priest, I remain a Priest, with my vocation and calling to God, continually being re-shaped and moulded for future purposes.

Many of you know that I love reading and take considerable time researching material when preparing sermons, services and bible studies such as the Beyond Alpha Group. On particularly challenging occasions (yes, I have had some!) I take comfort from two special bookmarks, kept close at hand. One I received 34 years ago, when church organist at Cretingham - a time well before any inkling of becoming an Elder, then Reader, then ordained Priest. It reads ‘God is going with you. He will not fail you. Be strong.’ The other, given six years ago, on the occasion of my ordination reads ‘YOU are to be taken, blessed, broken, distributed, that the work of the incarnation may go forward’ (St Augustine).

Why do I place such importance on these sayings? Well, both succinctly point me back to God, reminding me to stay grounded in God’s promise of care, at all times and in all places. These profound words, when taken into my mind and actions, have given confidence and courage when the going has been tough; have brought a returned sense of humility when the ego/self has grown too big for its own boots; have helped me reflect on the rich blessings I’ve been privileged to enjoy; and call me onwards to live out my life for God wherever that might lead, even, as now, beyond the immediate life of the Carlford Benefice.

From the bottom of my heart, I thank you all for being part of this recent, very happy chapter in my life. Also, I pray that in a year’s time, when the new chapter has evolved, you and I will reflect further upon special occasions of relationship together. THANKS be to God.
