PASSES ISSUED TO A CLOPTON WOMAN & HER YOUNG DAUGHTER

They were not Eighth Air Force civilian employees, but had to have passes as they lived in the middle of the Base, opposite the "Communal Site" (See model on central table).

Although the Station was known as Debach, most of it was in the parishes of Clopton and Burgh.

Loss of this card will be reported to the Provost Officer AAF Station 152, without delay by the person named hereon, with the circumstances of loss.

This card must be surrendered to the office from which obtained when the purpose for which it was issued ceases to exist.

This card will be voided if altered in any manner.
